INTERNET SAFETY ALERT

FROM MISS GEORGE

It has come to our attention that children are playing a game in school called 'Red Light, Green Light'. The game itself is harmless and comes from a user created game on the popular app 'Roblox'. The issue that may arise is that the game is based on the new Netflix show 'Squid Game'. The show itself has a +15 age rating on Netflix due to its brutality and violence, there are concerns that children will think the show is appropriate to watch due to its appearance within the Roblox world.

Here is a link to Childnet's advice of how to set parental controls on Netflix:
